Evolution from the embers

How Londoners responded to the Great Fire and the Blitz

2016 marks the 350th anniversary of the Great Fire of London and the 75th anniversary of the culmination of the major Blitz offensive against London. AfL's conference will explore how the capital dealt with these catastrophic events and was able to recover so quickly afterwards.

Detail from Anonymous Panorama, 1666.
London Metropolitan Archives, City of London

Exploring London in 1666 and life after the Great Fire are Dr Vanessa Harding, University of London; Dr Felicity Henderson, University of Exeter and Dr Stephen Porter, Charterhouse archivist.

Whilst Laurence Ward, LMA, doctoral student Darren Bryant and Stephen Larkham, Birmingham City University are among those to discuss the impact of the Blitz across London in 1941.

The day includes guided tours of LMA's exhibition: London's Baking! Bakers, Cakes, Bread and Puddings from 1666 to the present day.
